INTRODUCTION: SCORING FORMS

General Scoring Forms are provided at the beginning of this section and are followed by the Individual Offense Reference Sheets. The General Scoring Forms include scoring sheets intended to assist in the calculation of offender scores and sentence ranges for offenses imposed with either a deadly weapon enhancement or with a sexual motivation finding.

The Individual Offense Reference Sheets are arranged alphabetically. The individual sheets for controlled substances, imitation controlled substances and legend drug crimes are grouped together. Please note that the General Scoring Forms do not present sentencing options eligibility (e.g., work release, work ethic camp). Please refer to Section II of this manual for clarification of eligibility rules or conditions for each sentencing option.

2003 LEGISLATIVE OVERVIEW

The 2003 Legislature enacted two substantial changes to the Sentencing Reform Act, one relating to drug offenses and the other to release from confinement. These changes can be summarized as follows:

ESSB 5990, codified in part at RCW 9.94A.728, revises times and supervision standards for the release of offenders. The bill increases to 50 percent, the aggregate earned release time of certain offenders. In general the increase does not apply to any offender with a prior or current conviction for a sex offense; a violent offense; a crime against persons; felony domestic violence; residential burglary; the completed or inchoate offenses of manufacture, delivery or possession with the intent to deliver methamphetamine and delivery or possession with intent to deliver a controlled substance to a minor. The fifty percent earned release time is further limited to offenders falling within the two lowest risk categories as determined by the Department of Corrections.

The bill also limits the aggregate earned release time of offenders convicted of a serious violent offense, or a sex offense that is a class A felony, committed on or after July 1, 2003, to ten percent of the sentence. Offenders convicted of a serious violent offense, or a sex offense that is a class A felony, committed on or after July 1, 1990 and before July 1, 2003 are permitted to earn release time not to exceed fifteen percent of the sentence.

Additionally, the bill also effects the operation of the 2002 drug-sentencing bill, 2SHB 2338. The drug bill, codified in part in RCW 9.94A.515, 525, 585, and 660, adopted the recommendations of the Sentencing Guidelines Commission regarding treatment for drug offenders and reinforces the legislative intent to provide viable alternatives to incarceration of certain drug offenders. As originally enacted, portions of the law became effective in July 2002 and portions were to apply in 2004. The amendments effective in 2002 lowered the seriousness level of certain drug offenses from Level VIII to Level VII Seriousness and changed the scoring of certain prior drug offenses in history from triple to single scoring.

ESSB 5990, amends the effective date of the application of the new drug-sentencing grid from 2004 to offenses committed on or after July 1, 2003.

- If the court orders a deadly weapon enhancement, use the applicable enhancement sheets on pages III-5 or III-6 to calculate the enhanced sentence.
 - Add additional time to the standard range for some drug offenses committed in a correctional facility or in a protected zone. See the individual offense reference sheets for specifics.
 - If no prior sex offense conviction and sentence is less than eleven years, the Special Sex Offender Sentencing Alternative is an option.
 - If Drug Offender Sentencing Alternative (DOSA) eligible: see DOSA form for alternative sentence on page III-7.
- * The Washington State Court of Appeals ruled that although solicitations to commit violations of 69.50 are not considered drug offenses as defined in 9.94A.030, they do score as a drug offense. See State v. Howell, 102 Wn. App. 288, 6 P.3d 1201 (2000).
-  If the offender is not a persistent offender and has a prior conviction for an offense listed in RCW 9.94A.030(32)(b), and the current offense occurred on or after September 1, 2001, then the sentence is subject to the requirements of RCW 9.94A.712.

SENTENCE RANGES FOR ANTICIPATORY DRUG OFFENSES

The appropriate sentence ranges for anticipatory offenses (attempts and conspiracies) involving violations of the Uniform Controlled Substances Act (VUCSA) have been clarified through a series of court decisions and legislative actions. Table 5 presents the current status of statute and case law on appropriate sentence ranges for anticipatory violations of the Uniform Controlled Substances Act.

Table 5. Sentence Ranges for Anticipatory Drug Offenses

	SENTENCE RANGE	STATUTE
Attempt Possession, Delivery or Manufacture	Unranked (0 to 12)	RCW 69.50.407
Solicitation* Possession Delivery or Manufacture	75% of Standard Range	RCW 9A.28.030
Conspiracy Possession, Delivery or Manufacture	Unranked (0 to 12)	RCW 69.50.407

RELEVANT STATUTES FOR VUCSA OFFENSES

RCW 69.50.101(f) “Deliver” or “delivery” means the actual or constructive transfer from one person to another of a controlled substance, whether or not there is an agency relationship.

RCW 69.50.407 Conspiracy. Any person who attempts or conspires to commit any offense defined in this chapter is punishable by imprisonment or fine or both which may not exceed the maximum punishment prescribed for the offense, the commission of which was the object of the attempt or conspiracy.

*RCW 9.94A.505 Sentences. (b) If a standard sentence range has not been established for the offender's crime, the court shall impose a determinate sentence which may include not more than one year of confinement; community restitution work; until July 1, 2000, a term of community supervision not to exceed one year and on and after July 1, 2000, a term of community custody not to exceed one year, subject to conditions and sanctions as authorized in RCW 9.94A.710 (2) and (3); and/or other legal financial obligations. The court may impose a sentence which provides more than one year of confinement if the court finds reasons justifying an exceptional sentence as provided in *RCW 9.94A.535.

RCW 9A.28.030 Criminal solicitation. (1) A person is guilty of criminal solicitation when, with intent to promote or facilitate the commission of a crime, he offers to give or gives money or other thing of value to another to engage in specific conduct which would constitute such crime or which would establish complicity of such other person in its commission or attempted commission had such crime been attempted or committed.

(2) Criminal solicitation shall be punished in the same manner as criminal attempt under RCW 9A.28.020.

*Solicitations drop one class from the underlying offense (e.g., a solicitation to commit a Class B felony is a Class C felony). Solicitations to commit Class C felonies are gross misdemeanors

- The Washington State Court of Appeals ruled that although solicitations to commit violations of 69.50 are not considered drug offenses as defined in 9.94A.030, they do score as a drug offense. See State v. Howell, 102 Wn. App. 288, 6 P.3d 1201 (2000).
- The Supreme Court clarified that solicitations to commit violations of the Uniform Controlled Substances Act (RCW 69.50) are not “drug offenses” and are not subject to the community custody requirement for drug offenses, under RCW 9.94A.715. See In re Hopkins, 137 Wn.2d 897 (1999).

RELEVANT STATUTES – NON VUCSA OFFENSES

RCW 9A.28.020 Criminal attempt. (1) A person is guilty of an attempt to commit crime if, with intent to commit a specific crime, he does any act which is a substantial step toward the commission of that crime.

(2) If the conduct in which a person engages otherwise constitutes an attempt to commit a crime, it is no defense to a prosecution of such attempt that the crime charged to have been attempted was, under the attendant circumstances, factually or legally impossible of commission.

(3) An attempt to commit a crime is a:

(a) Class A felony when the crime attempted is murder in the first degree, murder in the second degree, or arson in the first degree, child molestation in the first degree, indecent liberties by forcible compulsion, rape in the first degree, rape in the second degree, rape of a child in the first degree, or rape of a child in the second degree.

(b) Class B felony when the crime attempted is a Class A felony other than an offense listed in (a) of this subsection;

(c) Class C felony when the crime attempted is a Class B felony,

(d) Gross misdemeanor when the crime attempted is a Class C felony,

(e) Misdemeanor when the crime attempted is a gross misdemeanor or misdemeanor.

RCW 9A.28.030 Criminal solicitation. (1) A person is guilty of criminal solicitation when, with intent to promote or facilitate the commission of a crime, he offers to give or gives money or other thing of value to another to engage in specific conduct which would constitute such crime or which would establish complicity of such other person in its commission or attempted commission had such crime been attempted or committed.

(2) Criminal solicitation shall be punished in the same manner as criminal attempt under RCW 9A.28.020.

RCW 9A.28.040 Criminal conspiracy. (1) A person is guilty of criminal conspiracy when, with intent that conduct constituting a crime be performed, he agrees with one or more persons to engage in or cause the performance of such conduct, and any one of them takes a substantial step in pursuance of such agreement.

(2) It shall not be a defense to criminal conspiracy that the person or persons with whom the accused is alleged to have conspired:

(a) Has not been prosecuted or convicted, or

(b) Has been convicted of a different offense, or

(c) Is not amenable to justice, or

(d) Has been acquitted, or

(e) Lacked the capacity to commit an offense.

(3) Criminal conspiracy is a:

(a) Class A felony when an object of the conspiratorial agreement is murder in the first degree,

(b) Class B felony when an object of the conspiratorial agreement is a Class A felony other than murder in the first degree,

(c) Class C felony when an object of the conspiratorial agreement is a Class B felony,

(d) Gross misdemeanor when an object of the conspiratorial agreement is a Class C felony,

(e) Misdemeanor when an object of the conspiratorial agreement is a gross misdemeanor or misdemeanor.

RCW 9.94A.595 Anticipatory offenses. For persons convicted of the anticipatory offenses of criminal attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy under chapter 9A.28 RCW, the presumptive sentence is determined by locating the sentencing grid sentence range defined by the appropriate offender score and the seriousness level of the crime, and multiplying the range by 75 percent.

In calculating an offender score, count each prior conviction as if the present conviction were for the completed offense. When these convictions are used as criminal history, score them the same as a completed crime.
